DESCRIPTION:

The Cube Aim SL Mountain Bike is a versatile hardtail mountain bike designed for a wide range of riding conditions. It features a durable aluminium frame with internal cable routing, making it suitable for both on-road commuting and off-road adventures.

The bike is equipped with a Suntour XCM RL Disc suspension fork that provides 100mm of travel, enhancing comfort and control on rough terrain. It also includes Shimano hydraulic disc brakes, ensuring reliable stopping power in various weather conditions.

The drive train consists of Shimano components, including a 2x9-speed setup that allows for smooth and precise gear shifting.
