DESCRIPTION:

Looking for a fully functional and highly enjoyable keyboard? Then this retro-style keyboard is just the one for you.

It features a detachable smart monitor and a knob that can register keystrokes for multimedia control. The highly enjoyable mini display is great fun to play with, which is able to serve as a smartwatch with date and time, weather forecast, keyboard battery level, or basically anything you wish for with some settings and programming.

The true spirit of Epomaker is customization, and RT100 has also adopted such a spirit to its core. The proprietary software supports creating macros, remapping keys, and changing backlight effects. Note: the Type-C port for Mini-TV is deep. Make sure the Mini-TV is fully plugged before using the Mini-TV
